To Whom it May Concern,

I have just completed a series of 5 conferences around Australia and New Zealand with Kasey McDonald and other professional speakers.

Kasey filled the role of presenter, panel member and panel leader at all locations in her capacity as a leader in the realm of property management and residential property letting.

Kasey's knowledge of core content, legislative requirements, best practice and business practicality are a formidable combination as a speaker/presenter. Her access and involvement to rising industry trends, delivered in commercial realistic way is refreshing in an industry full of the noise of coaches and property management trainers.

Above all else, Kasey's ability to deliver content in a clear, concise, relevant, and applicable way stood out. Especially seeing as her presentations all fell at the end of a long day.

Her topics branched between, local issues but also included the right amount of global content to both keep the audience involved but informed of trends outside of their national and business boundaries.

Kasey has a warm, friendly and empathetic manner toward attendees which is a huge asset at an event where human interaction is valued.

I would highly recommend Kasey as a guest, speaker or panellist at any event where the professional management of property is involved.

Should you have any questions or require clarification, please do not hesitate to call/email me.

Kind Regards,
